

Pollinator Plant List Specific to the Rogue Valley and that grow well on SOU's campus

Scientific Name	Common Name	Specific Variety	Light Preference	Bloom Time	Bloom Color	Height	Water Needs	Notes
Achillea	Yarrow		Full Sun	Summer to early fall	varies		Little to Moderate
Aquilegia	Red Columbine	western	Full sun to light shade	Late spring to early summer	Red and Yellow	1.5-3ft	Regular	Native
Asclepias	Milkweed	Narrow-leaf and Showy	Full sun	summer			Moderate	Native varieties
Buddleja	Butterfly Bush	dwarf	Full sun to light shade	varies		3-15ft	Moderate to Regular Calluna vulgaris	Heather		Full sun	mid-late summer; maybe fall			Regular Centaurea	Dusty Miller	cineraria	Full sun	Summer	Purple (occas. yellow)	1ft+	Moderate	wildflower, fuzzy
Clarkia amoena	Farewell to Spring		Full sun to light shade				Little	Native
Coreopsis	Tickseed		Full sun	blooms profusely spring to fall	Bright orange-yellow	5-6in	Little to Moderate
Delphinium	Canyon Larkspur		Full sun to light shade	summer			regular	Native
Dicentra formosa	Western Bleeding Heart		Partial or full shade	april-june; often again in fall			Regular	native
Digitalis	Foxglove		shade	spring-summer
Echinacea	Purple Coneflower		Full sun	Spring to fall potentially	Rosy purple	up to 4ft	Moderate to Regular	Butterfly
Epilobium canum	California Fuschia		Full sun	Late Summer			Little	Hummingbirds, but
Eriophyllum lanatum	Oregon sunshine/ woolly sunflower		Full sun	May-Aug			Little	Native, butterfly
Erysimum	Wallflower	dwarf	Full sun to partial shade	long-blooming	varies		little to regular
Gaillardia	Blanket flower	aristata or grandiflora	Full sun	Summer or early summer-frost	Red and Yellow	2-4ft	Moderate
Iris	Western blueflag/ iris							Native
Penstemon	Beard tongue		Partial Shade in hottest				Little to Moderate
Phlox		snowy, reds	Full sun or light shade	varies	varies		Regular
Ribes	Currant	red sanguineum dwarf	Full sun or partial shade	Spring	Red	5-12ft	Little to Moderate	Native
Rudbeckia			Full sun	summer til frost	yellow or yellow variety		Moderate to Regular
Salvia	Sage	perennial or caradonna blue	Full sun	varies	varies		Moderate	Butterfly

*Blue means could not source locally

*Purple means shade loving plants

DON'T PLANT
 cistus, rock rose morning glory
 oregon grape rose of sharon